

Request for Disaster Relief Funds

The Federal Home Loan Bank of New York (HLB) has committed to provide $500 million dollars of Community Lending Program funds for disaster relief funding to communities that have been declared disaster areas by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

Member institutions may apply for funding for a broad range of economic development lending activities related to disaster recovery for affected communities, regardless of income status.

Qualifying activities include: small business lending; commercial/economic development activities; and gap financing while insurance payments are worked out.

This is a no cost commitment; there are no fees associated with non-drawn funds.
