STATUTORY ELIGIBLITY REQUIREMENTS

An individual must satisfy certain statutory requirements in order to be eligible for election as an independent director of a Federal Home Loan Bank (Bank). The requirements relate to citizenship, residency, and, for prospective public interest directors, experience in that field. The statute also prohibits an independent director from serving as an officer, employee, or director of an institution that is a member of, or that receives advances from, the Bank on whose board the director serves. The questions below address these statutory requirements.

1. Citizenship . Are you a citize	n of the United States?	Yes No
2. Residency. 3. Public Interest Directors. If you are seeking election as a public interest director, you must be able to demonstrate that you have more than four years experience representing consumer or community interests on banking services, credit needs, housing, or consumer financial protections.
If you meet this requirement, provide information on how you have represented such consumer or community interests for more than four years.
4. Conflicts of interest. Independent directors and their spouses may not serve as an officer of any Bank or as an officer, employee, or director of any member of, or any recipient of advances from, the Bank on whose board the independent director serves. You and your spouse will have to give up any conflicting position before you can become a Bank director.
For purposes of this conflict of interest provision, the terms:
"Member" and "Recipient of advances" include the institution itself and any subsidiary of the institution. If the institution is owned by a holding company, the terms include the holding company if 35 percent or more of the holding company's assets, on a consolidated basis, are attributable to institutions that are members of, or recipients of advances from, the Bank on whose board the independent director serves. Thus, you may not serve as a director, employee, or officer of a holding company if one or more members of, or one or more recipients of advances from, your Bank constitute 35 percent or more of the holding company's assets.
A. Please specify each position you and your spouse have in any member of, or recipient of advances from, the Bank on whose board you would serve.
B. Do you agree to give up positions that are deemed to be conflicting interests before becoming an independent director of that Bank? Yes No

SELECTION CRITERIA

The Banks are multi-billion dollar financial institutions, the principal business of which is to borrow funds in the capital markets and then provide secured loans to their members. Each Bank is required to have independent directors who possess knowledge or expertise in financial management, derivatives, auditing and accounting, risk management practices, project development, organizational management, or the law.
