

FEDERAL HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY
Federal Home Loan Bank Independent Director
Application Form

FHFA Form #129
(04/2022)

INSTRUCTIONS

You either have expressed interest in, or have been recommended for, nomination to stand for election as an independent director of the Federal Home Loan Bank of _____ (Bank). If you would like the Bank’s board of directors to consider you as a possible nominee for an independent directorship, you must complete and execute this Federal Home Loan Bank Independent Director Application Form and submit it to the Bank on or before _____ If you do not submit a completed and executed Form by that date, you will be deemed to have declined to be considered for nomination.

By law, the Bank’s board of directors may nominate you for an independent directorship only if it has verified that you meet the legal eligibility requirements applying to independent directors and possess the professional qualifications that are specified by law for the type of independent directorship for which you are being considered. Your responses to the questions on this Form will assist the Bank in verifying that you are legally eligible, and possess the required professional qualifications, to serve as an independent director of the Bank if elected.

You are eligible to serve as an independent director of the Bank only if you meet all of the following requirements:

- You are a citizen of the United States.
- You are a bona fide resident of the Bank District, as determined by meeting either one of the following two sets of criteria:
 - Your principal residence is located in the Bank District; or
 - You both:
 - Own or lease in your own name a residence in the Bank District; and
 - Are employed in a voting state in the Bank District.
- Neither you nor your spouse are:
 - An officer of any Federal Home Loan Bank; or
 - An officer, employee, or director of any member of, or recipient of advances from, the Bank. For purposes of this prohibition:
 - “Advances” includes any form of lending, regardless of whether it is denominated as an “advance”; and
 - “Member” and “recipient of advances” include the institution itself and the institution’s holding company, except where the assets of all members or all recipients of advances constitute less than 35 percent of the assets of the holding company, on a consolidated basis.

These eligibility requirements may be found in sections 7(a) and (b) of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act (Bank Act), 12 U.S.C. 1427(a) and (b), and in Federal Housing Finance Agency regulations at 12 CFR 1261.5(c) and 1261.10.

In addition, you must demonstrate that you possess certain professional qualifications, which differ depending on whether you are seeking nomination for a “regular” or a “public interest” independent directorship. By law, the Bank must designate at least two of the independent directorships on its board as “public interest” directorships. These independent directorships may be filled only by individuals having, at the time of nomination, more than four (4) years of experience representing consumer or community interests in banking services, credit needs, housing, or consumer financial protections.

Regular independent directorships, that is, those that are not public interest directorships, must be filled by individuals having, at the time of nomination, experience in or knowledge of one or more of the following areas: auditing and accounting, derivatives, financial management, organizational management, project development, risk management practices, and the law. Such knowledge or experience must be commensurate with that needed to oversee a financial institution with a size and complexity comparable to that of the Bank. The requirements regarding professional qualifications may be found in section 7(a)(3)(B) of the Bank Act, 12 U.S.C. 1427(a)(3)(B), and in FHFA’s regulations at 12 CFR 1261.7(e).

Please answer all applicable questions in full and do not answer any question by referring to another document, except where expressly permitted to do so. You may continue your answers on additional pages, if necessary, each of which shall be attached to, and deemed a part of, this Form.

12. Type of Independent Directorship Being Sought. Please check one or both of the boxes below to indicate the type of independent directorship you are seeking.

Check if you are seeking a public interest independent directorship.

Check if you are seeking a regular independent directorship.

Public Interest Independent Directorship

By statute, a nominee for a public interest independent directorship must have “more than 4 years of experience in representing consumer or community interests on banking services, credit needs, housing, or consumer financial protections.” Qualifying experience in one of the four enumerated areas may have been acquired in professional, public service, or volunteer positions, so long as the work done was substantial in terms of time commitment and responsibility. As indicated by the statute’s use of the word “representing,” the experience must have involved advocating for, or otherwise acting primarily for the direct benefit of, consumer or community interests in one of the four enumerated areas. Further, the experience must accrue from activities personally undertaken by the individual seeking nomination as a public interest independent director, as opposed to being attributed based solely on the activities of an organization with which the person was associated. Please reach out to the Bank if you have questions as to whether your experience meets the statutory requirements to qualify for service as a public interest independent director.

13. Representation of Consumer and Community Interests. Please explain in detail how you have represented consumer or community interests in banking services, credit needs, housing, or consumer financial protections for more than four years. At a minimum:

- Identify the positions through which you obtained your qualifying experience and specify the dates during which you served in those positions.
- Specify whether those positions involved banking services, credit needs, housing, or consumer financial protections.
- To the extent that your experience was obtained with an organization or agency, describe generally the mission of each such organization or agency and the manner in which its mission is typically fulfilled.
- Describe your responsibilities in those positions and, if any were not full-time paid employment, indicate the amount of time you spent fulfilling those responsibilities annually.
- Describe your major accomplishments in those positions that relate to the experience needed to qualify as a public interest independent director.

Answer to Question 13

Regular Independent Directorship
